

Klove is very uplifting. Our local radio stations talk trash that I do not like my kids to hear. Klove is primarily the only station our family listens to. If it were replaced we would be more likely to just listen to our CDs. The way the world is headed we need more uplifting music and encouraging words..praying for you to have wisdom